Towner seeks people with a passion for art to share our future. Your contribution provides crucial support for Towner, enabling us to provide unique opportunities and inspirational experiences.

We present exhibitions of the best international contemporary and historic visual art, and we provide a friendly and welcoming visitor experience that is the envy of the gallery world.

Our collection is constantly being used for schools, outreach and dementia groups, inspiring the community and is the centre for studies and displays of the artist Eric Ravilious.

What we can offer you as a Towner Member:

- Private views with curator and artists talks
- Free entry to Towner paying exhibitions
- Discounts in Towner shop and café
- Limited edition artist designed membership card
- Meet fellow members at social events including private views and seasonal celebrations

If you can offer Towner a greater contribution we can offer you Supporter membership:

- Free entry to paying exhibitions for you and 3 guests
- Complimentary exhibition catalogues
- Opportunity to accompany Towner staff on art visits
- Information on collecting contemporary art

“The visit to Frieze Art Fair with curator Sanna Moore was both informative and delightful. Her knowledge and presence brought a new perspective on the international contemporary arts scene.”

P Langford, Supporter

“By becoming a supporter, I really feel part of this wonderful Gallery and in touch with all that they are achieving.”

“Towner... is one ...of the most creative and brilliantly run institutions in visual arts anywhere.”

Laura Cumming, The Observer, March 2011

The new Towner lights up Eastbourne

“This gallery does Eastbourne proud... They have shown that a small, thoroughly thought-through art gallery can look beyond the South Downs to the world of the artistic imagination, and bring the spirit of the south coast right into the heart of Eastbourne.”

Jonathan Glancey, The Guardian, April 2009
